

James R. Miller and Taylor Neil curate an exhibit of local maps illustrating some of the changes that have taken place in South County, primarily Sheffield, from the date of the earliest map, 1722, to the 21st century.

The Sheffield Historical Society
presents:

A new exhibit at The Old Stone Store

August 6 to Late September, 2011

TALKING MAPS

THESE MAPS TELL STORIES

The closer you look
the more stories are uncovered!

June –July Exhibit:

Sheffield During the Civil War

The exhibit ran from May 21st to August 1st.

